1. Greeting

Hi, [their name], this is [your name]. How are you? Do you have a few minutes to talk? (Catch up briefly.)

If not a good time to talk

May I call you back in a little while, or would tomorrow at this time be better?

2. Transition

If able to talk

I was calling about the letter I/we sent you recently to see if you (and [their spouse]) had a chance to look it over."

No, we didn't get it

Oh, no! Let me verify your address in case I have it wrong in my files. In the meantime, I can email you a copy of the letter. May I have your email, so I can send you the letter electronically? (Write down email if you don't have it.) Great. Thank you! I will send that over as soon as we hang up.

Basically, I wanted to send you details about what's going on in my/our ministry with The Navigators at [ministry location] (campus, base, city, etc.). The email will explain more about what God is doing and the reason we are currently raising additional funds. May I call you again after you've read the email, maybe in 2 or 3 days? (Pause.) Thank you so much, [their name]. I look forward to talking with again you soon!

(In a couple of days call back and start with conversation below after greeting them.)

Yes

Great! Did you have any questions about my/our ministry with The Navigators or why additional funding for our ministry right now is so critical?" (Answer their questions.)

3. Ask for a Decision

As the letter highlights, God has been doing some amazing things in our ministry. In order for me/us to continue impacting the lives of [whomever is highlighted in your letter], I/we are trusting God for monthly/special gifts of [monthly and/or total amount] by [date]. Have you had a chance to come to a decision about making a gift at this time?

Yes (will give)

Great! Thank you! Have you (and spouse) already discussed an amount? This really helps with my financial planning. (Pause.) May I give you my/our Navigator giving website address so that you can easily make your gift (navstaff.org/give/NavID)?

Yes (already gave via check/online)

Thank you so much! That is such an encouragement! For accounting purposes, would you mind telling me how much you decided on? Great! Thank you again.

No (not giving now)

That's OK and doesn't change a thing between us! Thank you for considering my/our request even if this isn't the time for you to give. I'd still like to continue to share with you all God is doing in our ministry through our newsletter updates.

No decision yet

May I give you a call in a few days? How does [date] at [time] work?

3. Close the Call

Thank you so much for taking the time to talk with me. Do you have any prayer requests that you'd like me to pray for?
